Please follow the below given instructions:

- Fee up to September 2025 must be cleared in order to view your ward's answer sheet.
- One of the parents/guardians must be present along with the student.
- Only parents or legal guardians are allowed to view the answer sheets. In special cases, others may be permitted only with prior approval from the Principal.
- No discussions with teachers are allowed while viewing the answer sheets. Sit with your ward and observe where they have made mistakes.
- If you have any queries or need clarification, kindly submit a written application to the Principal on the same day, requesting to view the answer sheets again.
- You will have approximately 30 minutes to view the answer sheets. Please use this time meaningfully with your child.
- The use of mobile phones, pens, pencils, or any writing instruments is not allowed during the session. Photography is strictly prohibited.
- Please follow all instructions strictly to ensure the day is productive and the arrangements run smoothly.
- We seek your full cooperation and support to make this event successful.

We hope this initiative will help in better understanding your child's progress and supporting their learning journey.
